

06-6

Shah of Iran at the U.N.
UN. Flushing, N.Y. 21 November, 1949.
UN. pix & comp FG 430'

Address in G.A. Hall.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

UNHA: VISITORS

Mohammad Reza Shah Pahlavi, Shahinshah of Iran addressing Plenary Meeting of U.N. General Assembly.

Silent shots:

-----Arrival by automobile with police escort on motorcycles at G.A. Building in Flushing. Shah getting out of car, being greeted by G.A. President Carlos Romulo (Philippines) and U.N. Secretary General Trygve Lie.
Assembly Hall. Shah entering hall, delegates applauding.
Shah taking seat on podium.

Sound Coverage:

-----Shah taking official seat on podium. President Romulo opening meeting. Shah addressing Assembly. (2 extracts:
"Without peace smaller countries could make no advance in their efforts to attend high living standards and social justice" etc.etc." I pray that all countries, great and small, would compete with each other only in the fields of peaceful achievement.

06-6 (Card 2)

"Not until then would mankind, released from fear, live in a brighter, happier world".
Delegates applauding and rising.