Cut Story on W.H.O. Activities in India - Medical examination of children and spraying DDT in Indian villages.

Rough cut of material on W.H.O. activities in India. Various shots show:

— W.H.O. spraying team travelling from village to village (on foot and on oxen driven carts), passing rivers, jungles.
— Spraying equipment being checked, huts being sprayed with DDT.
— W.H.O. doctors examining children in villages.
— Female social workers (one of them Indian) walking through village.
