INNOVATION AND ACTIVISM”

The United Nations Environment Programme's Sasakawa Prize is one of the most prestigious environmental awards in the world. The winner of the 2002 prize's is Dr. Ashok Khosla – a scientist and environmental innovator who has been a pioneer of the “sustainable development” movement. Issues explored in this edition of World Chronicle include the impact of poverty – and wealth – on the environment, and new business models that can help nature while raising the living standards of poor people.

WORLD CHRONICLE is produced by the Media Division, Department of Public Information, United Nations, New York, NY 10017, U.S.A.
